
أسماء المتاحف والمجموعات الخاصة

Names of museums and private collections

Assem Khaled Abdel-Rady

مهم جدا تعرف طريقة البحث داخل كل موقع متحف أو مجموعة، لأن فيه حاجه اسمها الصفحة الرسمية الي هى (Home) وبيكون فيها محرك بحث صغير الي هو اسمه (Search) ودي ملهاش علاقة بالتحف أو القطع الي انت عايزها، دي بتبقى خاصة بالمؤتمرات أو المناسبات الي المتحف بيعملها، فلازم ولابد انك تبحث عن حاجه اسمها (Collection) ومتقلقش لأن كل موقع جواه (Collection)، وافضل طريقة عشان تجيب صفحة (Collection) انك تكتب على جوجل إسم المتحف وبعده تضيف كلمة (Collection) الي بتشير لـ(مجموعة المقتنيات الفنية) يعني مثلا لو عايز تحف المتحف البريطاني بلندن تكتب كده:

"British Museum collection"

ونفس الشيء مثلا في متحف اللوفر بباريس زي كده:

"Louver Museum collection"

المهم إنك تضيف كلمة Collection عشان يفتح لك الصفحة الخاصة بعرض التحف الفنية وده أسهل عليك من أنك تخش الموقع وتبحث في خيارته على كلمة Collection وبعدها تقدر تبحث داخل محرك البحث الخاص بالصفحة الي هو (Search)، ويكون البحث عن طريق كلمات عامة مش خاصة، يعني لو موضوع يخص مصر تكتب (Egypt – Cairo- Islamic – Coptic) وهكذا... المهم متكتبش موضوع بعينه لأنك مش هتلاقيه، أو تكتب المادة الخام مثلاً زي (Copper, iron, cloth, cotton, paper) أو الخط الكوفي أو الثلث لو كان متاح ذكره، لأن هما عندهم حاجه اسمها (Categories) او الفئات، كل فئة لها رابط خاص بها يفتح لك كل التحف الي لها علاقة بالموضوع او الفئة المعينة دي، زي مثلاً كلمة (Copper) يعني نحاس هيفتح لك كل التحف المصنوعة من النحاس سواء اسلامي أو قبطي أو مصري قديم أو حتى الصيني (كـل حاجـه)، عشان كده انا أفضل انك تكتب التخصص بتاعك أفضل وتبحث بنفسك في داخل كل غرفة صور، لأنك هتلاقي حجات تانية غالباً هتفيدك.

It is very important to know how to search within each museum or collection website, because there is something called the official page, which is (Home), and there is a small search engine called (Search), which has nothing to do with the antiques or pieces that you want, this remains specific to conferences or events. If the museum does it, you must search for something called (Collection) and do not worry because every website has a (Collection) inside it. And the best way to find the (Collection) page is to type on Google the name of the museum and then add the word (Collection) which refers to (the collection of art collections). I mean, for example, if you want antiques from the British Museum in London, you write like this:

"British Museum collection"

The same thing, for example, in the Louvre Museum in Paris is like this:

Louver Museum collection"

The important thing is that you add the word Collection so that the page for displaying art objects opens for you, and this is easier for you than going through the site and searching its options on the word Collection. Then you can search within the page's search engine, which is (Search), and the search is done using general words. Not specifically, meaning if a topic concerns Egypt, you write (Egypt - Cairo - Islamic - Coptic) and so on... The important thing is that you do not write a specific topic because you will not find it, or write the raw material, such as (Copper, iron, cloth, cotton, paper) or Kufic script. Or the name of a king if it were available to mention because they have something called (Categories).

Each category has its link that opens for you all the antiques related to this particular topic or category. For example, the word (Copper) means copper, which will open for you all the antiques made from Copper, whether Islamic, Greek, ancient Egyptian, or Chinese (everything), this is why I prefer that you write your speciality better and search for yourself inside the images room because you will often find other things that will benefit you.
